

Invites you to an event that will help you transform the way your home and workplace functions and feels.

Partnering With Your Space

Saturday May 21st

at the home of Bonnie Salamon

3256 Highway 255 South, Cleveland GA 30528

Two sessions with professional organizer and feng shui practitioner

Melody LeBaron

10am to 12:30pm: De-Cluttering and Organizing for Good

In this session, we'll

- develop a deeper connection to our home and to the land we live on
- create a permanent de-cluttering and organizing plan
- learn how to enroll housemates in the de-cluttering and organizing process
- do an energetic clearing to release any attachment we have to our clutter, so we can get rid of what is holding us back

Please wear comfortable clothing; we'll be doing some chair yoga and breath work.

You'll receive a 40-page workbook with secrets professional organizers and interior designers use!

2pm to 4:30pm: Using Feng Shui to Up-Level Your Life in 2011

In this session, we'll

- apply the Bagua (energy map of the space) to YOUR home and workplace, using YOUR floor plan
- learn how the ancient technology of Feng Shui can be used to manifest better health, relationships, careers, and prosperity
- develop a tailored Feng Shui plan to achieve YOUR intentions

Please bring a floor plan of your home or office (can be hand drawn) and a list of your intentions for 2011.

You'll receive a 30-page workbook that will allow you to immediately begin to Feng Shui your home and workplace.

Melody is a Professional Organizer, Feng Shui consultant, and Space Clearing practitioner.

She believes that our homes both reflect and affect the state of our body, mind, and spirit.

She will facilitate these two sessions, which include movement and breath work, group discussion, and meditation.

Cost: (includes both workbooks)

$60 for both sessions if pre-registered by May 10

$50 each for couples who pre-register by May 10

$75 after May 10

for more information on this work, see Melody's website www.transformingspace.com